Insert the following draft decision after the text of draft decision 23:

24. Situation of human rights in Iraq

The Economic and Social Council, taking note of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/74 of 9 March 1994, approves the Commission's decision to extend for a further year the mandate of the Special Rapporteur, as contained in Commission resolutions 1991/74, 1992/71 and 1993/74. It also approves:

(a) the Commission's request to the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Special Rapporteur, to take the necessary measures in order to send human rights monitors to such locations as would facilitate improved information flows and assessment and would help in the independent verification of reports on the situation of human rights in Iraq;

(b) the Commission's request to the Special Rapporteur to report periodically to the Commission on the situation of human rights in Iraq, and to submit an interim report on the situation of human rights in Iraq to the General Assembly at its forty-ninth session and a report to the Commission at its fifty-first session;

(c) the Commission's request to the Secretary-General to provide appropriate additional resources, within existing overall United Nations resources, to fund the sending of human rights monitors; and

(d) the Commission's request to the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteur with all the necessary assistance in performing his task.

[See chap. II, sect. A, resolution 1994/74, and chap. XII.]

Renumber the subsequent draft decisions accordingly.
